Jesus' Example

"It is my conviction that when we are really focusing on how we can be the best church for our community, we will be recognizable, tangible, visible signs of salvation in our homes, our neighborhoods, our community, and the earth. ... [T]hat's what Jesus did. He came to ... proclaim the good news of salvation to all people, and He came with compassion for the sick and sorrowful: all people, and He demonstrated His majestic commitment to justice for all people.

— Sung Kwon, director of Adventist Community Services, speaking at staff worship on June 12, 2018.
