ANNOUNCEMENTS & RESOURCES

ALC's "Adventist Church History – Tell The World" course examines the beginnings of the Seventh-day Adventist Church as represented in the movie "Tell the World." Emphasizing God's leading, the film highlights the major events that shaped the early Church and how God inspired Adventist pioneers throughout their earnest search for truth. In each module, you will read a short introduction about key historical events and watch an excerpt from the movie, "Tell the World." Jesus 101

BY GOD'S GRACE
CELEBRATING
10 YEARS

www.Jesus101.tv

celebrates 10 years! Founded and led by Dr. Elizabeth Viera Talbot, this media ministry was created to help people find Jesus through the Scriptures. Jesus 101 has developed many resources in English and Spanish, including study guides, books, video programs, audio devotionals, started ministry outreach efforts to prisons and hospitals, and created evangelistic partnerships with local churches and conferences to provide Bible study resources. Talbot says, "We have come this far by God's grace and His grace will lead us HOME!" Visit Jesus101.tv for more information.

You Are Needed

"My greatest desire is involvement, especially of young adults, in the work of local church. The work of God isn't going to be finished by people of my generation, it will be finished by the younger generation. You are needed in the church."

—Daniel R. Jackson, May 22, 2019, during the live broadcast of "Is This Thing On?" at the ACF Institute - Berkeley event
